        Locals of Indiana, Pennsylvania surprised to find out of new fast-food restaurant, Chick-fil-A.
        This restaurant will be built in the spot of the once love Rustic Lodge. Local high school student said, <q>It's crazy to see the small town I grew up in evolve so quickly in the last few years</q>

        White Township officials approved the building. Saying, I think this will be an improvementfor the town, creating new jobs, increasing traffic, and helping the economy.
